1. (1). John van Alen, of Utrecht.

This is the presumed name of the two Van Alen brothers who immigrated in 1658.

Nothing is known in regard to him. His Christian name, John, is determined by the fact that both of his sons named one of their first children John, a coincidence not likely to occur unless their father's name was John.

The statement has frequently been made and generally accepted that the father of the Van Alen brothers was "Lourens van Alen, merchant of Amsterdam," and quite a tissue of romance has been woven around this entirely mythical person. That Peter and Lawrence van Alen, of Albany, were the sons of Lourens van Alen is an obiter dictum of Professor Jonathan Pearson, in his "Contributions to the Genealogies of the First Settlers of Albany," made upon quite insufficient evidence, which has served to mislead nearly all succeeding genealogists. There ~~was~~ was a Pieter Lourensen, and also a Lourens Lourensen, at Albany in the early days, but the references to them clearly antedate the arrival of the brothers at New Amsterdam in 1658. Moreover, it may be stated as a positive fact, that in no ~~known~~ instance is either Peter or Lawrence known by a patronymic. In every instance their surname, van Haelen, van Aelen, van Alen or van Ale, is given.

Peter van Alen is known to have had three sons, but not one of these was given the name of Lourens. Had Peter's father really been Lourens, this neglect to name a child after him would have been an almost unheard of violation of a pious Dutch custom. Similarly, Lawrence van Alen named his eldest son John, the next after his wife's father, a third after his wife's grandfather, two others after persons whose relationship to him is not known, and the name Lourens was finally given to his sixth and next-to-the-last son. ~~Here again,~~ Had Lawrence been really the son of Lourens van Alen, the name would have been given to one of the two oldest sons. The circumstance that Lawrence relegated the name to almost the very last is even stronger evidence against the existence of "Lourens van Alen, merchant of Amsterdam," than Peter's entire ignoring of the name. We may safely conclude that, whatever the name of the father of Peter and Lawrence van Alen was, it certainly was not Lourens or Lawrence.

John van Alen had sons:

- (2). i. Peter, born about 1633.
- (3). ii. Lawrence, born about 1642.

prolonged he would undoubtedly have become one of the most prominent and influential residents of Albany. As it is, every Van Allen has reason to be proud of the record which the first of their name in America left behind him.

Peter van Allen married 1st, in Holland, circa 1654, Feyntje ~~M~~ (Wilhelmina) Morren, probably daughter of Barent Morren, and had:

- (4). i. A daughter, (prob. Catharine)~~m~~, b. in Holland about 1655.
- (5). ii. A daughter, b. in Holland about 1657.
- (6). iii. Elizabeth, bap. N. Y. C. 28 Mar 1659; sponsor, Adriaen van Laer; prob. d. young.
- (7). iv. Barent, bap. Kingston 11 Je 1662; sponsor, Andries Harmensen; prob. d. young.

~~for~~

He married 2d, about 1666, Maria, dau of Willen Teller and Margariet Bonckesen, and had:

- (8). v. Johannes, b. Albany about 1668.
- (9). vi. William, b. Albany about 1670.

He married 3d, about 1673, Maria, dau of Peter Janse Loockermans and Leontine (v). No issue.

In regard to the foregoing children: Of course, nothing is known as to the names or sex of the two children brought over by Peter in 1659. But I think that it is highly probable that neither of them was a boy; or if one of them was a boy, he must have died in infancy. John van Allen uniformly calls himself the eldest son of Peter van Allen and seems to exercise all the privileges of primogeniture. I infer that Peter had a daughter named Catharine from the fact that at Albany 5 Feb 1689 Catrina van Allen, with Gerrit van Esch, stood sponsor for Lourens, ~~vax~~ son of Lourens van Allen and Elbertje Evertse. This Catrina van Allen could not have been other than a daughter of Peter van Allen. Lourens van Allen had, indeed, a daughter Catharine, but, by the most liberal computation, the latter could not have been over fifteen years of age in 1689, and moreover, it is very unusual in the Dutch records to find a person standing sponsor for his or her own brother or sister. Owing to the fact that among the early Dutch settlers married women were generally known by their maiden names, it is difficult to determine whether a given couple are man and wife unless their names are somewhere conjoined as the parents of children. As Catryn van Allen does not appear anywhere as a mother, we do not know whether she was married or not. With Johannes van Allen (3) she stood sponsor at Albany 23 Oct 1691 for Jacobus, son of Lourens van Allen and Elbertje Evertse, and again, with Hendrick Lansing, 6 May 1694, for Claas, son of Hans Jurrians and Cornelia Claas.

Lawrence died sometime in the summer of 1714. There is on record a deed of the heirs of Jan Gardinier (Alb. Co., 5:226), acknowledged before Lowrens van Alen, justice of the peace, at Kinderhook 16 May 1714, and Lawrence's will was probated 27 Oct 1714. He therefore died sometime between these two dates. Pratt's burial record contains no reference to him, so he was probably buried on the farm at Kinderhook.

Lourens married Elbertje, daughter of Evert Luycase Backer before 1670, as we have already seen. From the census of 1697 it is evident that she was dead in the latter year. Lawrence and Elbertje had ten children, as follows:

- (10). i. Johannes, b. about 1670.
- (11). ii. Catharine, b. about 1672.
- (12). iii. Evert, b. about 1674.
- (13). iv. Peter, b. about 1677.
- (14). v. Stephen, b. about 1680.
- (15). vi. Lucas, b. about 1682.
- (16). vii. Jannetje, b. about 1684.
- (17). viii. (Christina), bap. Albany 7 Nov 1686; sp. Sara de Mandelaar and Isaac Verplanck.
- (18). ix. Lourens, bap. Albany 5 Feb 1688/9; sp. Catrina van Alen (4) and Gerrit van Esch.
- (19). x. Jacobus, bap. Albany 23 Oct 1691; sp. Johannes van Alen (8) and Catryn van Alen (4).

Of the above children, Lourens probably died young. Beyond the entry of his baptism we find absolutely no reference to him. Lawrence and Elbertje had a child baptized at Albany 7 Nov 1686, but by some oversight the Christian name of the child was not entered. The child was undoubtedly Christina, as I have indicated above.

Of Lawrence's daughters:

- Catharina, the eldest, married Albany 17 May 1696 Helgert, son of Helgert Wyaantse vander Poel and Arriantje Verplanck (daughter of Isaac Verplanck and Maria Vigao.) They had the following children, all baptized at Albany:
- i. Elbertje, bap. 3 Feb 1696/7; sp. Lourens van Alen (3) and Catalyntje Schuyler.

In the foregoing list the dates of baptism are from the church record; other dates are from Garret A. Van Allen's record. Bratt says: "Nicolaas van Alen was buried 1 Jul 1731."

Maritje, wife of William van Alen died at Bethlehem 28 Feb 1733, according to the family record. Bratt says she was buried at Albany 3 Mar 1733.

Of William's daughters; (25)

Maria, the eldest, married Albany 12 Dec 1718 Thomas (bap. Albany 21 Aug 1688; d. 1764-5), son of Lambert Janse van Alstyne and Jannetje Kingael. Their children, all baptized at Albany, were:

Maria, wife of Thomas van Alstyne, died at Kinderhook 4 Je 1772.

Eva, William's second daughter, married 15 Oct 1742 Kasparis Coeyman, widower, Eva, wife of Caspar Coeymans, died at Kinderhook 12 May 1772.

Of John's daughters:

- (36)
- Elbertje, the eldest, married at Kinderhook 28 Mar 1730 Johannes (bap. Albany 4 Jul 1708; d. 1786), son of Peter Meese Hogeboom (see note) and Jannetje Muller. They had children:
- i. Jannetje, bap. Kinderhook 17 Feb 1730/1; sp. Lucas van Alen (15) and Catharina van Alen (prob. ~~32~~ wife of Adam (34).); m. Jeremiah Muller.

Note that the son Cornelius above, who married Sarah Vosburgh, had a son, Peter C., who married Elbertje (17), dau. of Abraham Adamse van Alen (103) and Catharine van Duren. Cornelius Hogeboom was the sherrif of Columbia county who was shot in the anti-rent riots of Oct 1791.

13. Peter van Alen,

Son of Lawrence van Alen (3) and Elbertje Backer. Born Albany about 1677; died Kinderhook (after 17 Jan 1747/8 (?).)

Peter van Alen took the oath of allegiance in 1699. (Annals, 3:276.) He lived "to ye southward of Albany". 27 May 1716 he was a member of the consistory of the church at Kinderhook. His name appears on the list of freeholders of Kinderhook 11 J8 1720. 5 Feb 1723/4 Casper Roush, of Kinderhook, mason, sold to Peter van Alen, of Kinderhook, yeoman, for £90, a tract of land \pm "in Kinderhook, above Pompoenick, bounded west by the great kill, and so by course to the east side of the plain now belonging to the heirs of Dirck Hendrickse de Bye, and on the south, or south end, to the swamp or crupleboss of Peter Vosburgh; the whole having been bought by Roush 1 Sep 1716 from Jan Dillemont. (Alb. Co., 6:78.)

This is all that can be found in the records concerning Peter. The property which he inherited was, as we have seen, considerable, and he appears to have held it intact until his death. Tradition says that he lived in the Kinderhook valley in the neighborhood of what is now Chatham Center. The date of his death is not certainly known; but if the sponsor of the first child of Sander van Alstyne and Peter's eldest daughter, Elbertje, was the grandfather, he lived until after Jan 1748.

"Peter van Alen, young man, born at Albany, and Josina Dingmans, young woman, born at Kinderhook, both living at Kinderhook, married at bride's father's house 7 Jan 1704/5." (Albany records.) Josina Dingmans was ~~the~~ a daughter of Adam Dingmans and Aeltje Jacobse Gardinier, and a sister of Sara Dingmans, who married Peter's elder brother John.

Peter van Alen and Josina Dingmans had children baptized Albany:

- (43). i. Lourens, bap. 19 May 1706; sp. Melchert vander Poel and Catharina van Alen (11).
- (44). ii. Adam, bap. 21 Aug 1709; sp. Johannes Maase Bloemingdaal and Geertruy Bloemingdaal.

They had the following children baptized Kinderhook:

Elbertje, the eldest of Peter's daughters, married Kinderhook 2 Nov 1733 Sander (bap. Albany 5 Jan 1701), son of Abraham van Alstyne and Marritje Mattheus van Deusen (see note 4, under John (10).) They had children:

This last named Johannes Scherp married Baytje van Alen (116), daughter of Lucas van Alen (47) and Anna van Deusen.

All of these children attained maturity and married, with the exception of the son Peter (49), who appears to have died in infancy. (45)

Elbertje, the eldest of Peter's daughters, married Kinderhook 2 Nov 1733 Sander (bap. Albany 5 Jan 1701), son of Abraham van Alstyne and Marritje Mattheus van Deusen (see note 4, under John (10).) They had children:

- i. Maria, bap. Kinderhook 25 Oct 1734; sp. Abraham van Aalstyn (gdf.) and Josyna van Alen (gdm.)
- ii. Elisabeth, bap. Kinderhook 15 Jan 1735/6; sp. Jac. v. Alen (19) and Lena van Alen (his wife).

(46)
Alida, Peter's second daughter, married (no record) Johannes (bap. Albany 24 Mar 1706) son of Gysbert Andries Scherp (Sharp) and Lysbeth Goewy (daughter of Jan Salmonse Goewy and Caatje Loockermans.) They had children, all bap. Kinderhook except the last:

Note 1.

Gysbert Scherp was the son of Andries Hansen Scherp and perhaps Neeltje . He married Albany 16 Oct 1701 Lysabeth daughter of Jan Salmonse Goewy and Caatje Loockermans. They had the following children, all baptized Albany except the last ~~four~~ three:

- xi. Jannetje, bap. Kinderhook & 1731; sp. Lourens van Schaak and Jannetje van Schaak.

Cornelis above, the fourth child of Gysbert Scherp and Lysabeth Goewy, married Innertje Verschel, and had a son Gysbert, bap. Consackie 1743, who married Elbertje van Alen (), daughter of Lawrence van Alen (43) and Cornelia van Deusen.

(59)

Jannetje, Stephen's third daughter, married Kinderhook 11 Nov 1741 Jeremiah (bap. Albany 14 Oct 1711), son of Peter Neese Hogeboom (see note under John (10)) and Jannetje Cornelise Muller. She died 20 Sep 1759, according to the Hogeboom family record, and Jeremiah married second 28 Nov 1760 at Claverack Annatje van Hoesen. Jeremiah Hogeboom died Aug 1784. His will (Fornow's Calendar, #859), made 21 Dec 1782, proved 16 Jan 1784/5 (?), mentions wife Annatje; daughter Christina, wife of Gideon R. Hubbard; and son Peter; also speaks of "parts or parcels of the estates of Jurrien van Hoesen and David van Hoesen, both deceased, as I am entitled to in right of my wife." Jeremiah Hogeboom and Jannetje van Alen had children:

- i. Jannetje, bap. Albany 6 Feb 1742/3; sp.
- ii. Stephanus, bap. Claverack 21 Oct 1744; sp. Abraham Fonda and Elbertje van Alen (57).

- vi. Chrystyntje, bap. Claverack 14 Nov 1756; sp. Willem van Aelstyn and Hilletje van Dyk.

- (116) Bata, Lucas's eldest daughter, married Kinderhook 25 Dec
1787 John (bap.), son of Johannis Scherp and (see note) and . They had:
1. Johannis, bap. Kinderhook 26 Nov 1789; sp. Cornelis Scherperhorn and Syntje Scherp().
(And probably others.)

John Scherp removed to Hastings Co., Ontario, Canada, where he was a merchant for many years. The name is now spelled Sharp.

52. Lawrence van Alen, son of Stephen van Alen (14) and Maria Muller. Baptized Albany 30 Oct 1703; died Hinderhook about 1740.

Lawrence seems to have died early. Peter Hogeboom, in his will, made 20 Je 1747, proved 23 Feb 1758 (Ferne's Calendar "916), speaks of his daughter Arriantje, "widow of Lours. van Alen." 18 Aug 1740 at Kaatsbaan Arriantje van Alen and Jacob van Alen (56) stood sponsor for Magtel, daughter of Abraham Springsteen and Antje Smidt, and again 26 Mar 1744 at the same place the same couple acted as sponsors for Elisabeth, daughter of John Kendel and Sophia Elisabeth Hof. This makes it probable that Lawrence died 1740 or earlier and that his widow was living under the protection of her husband's brother Jacob. Lawrence seems to have left no will and there is no reference to him in the land records.

He married Arriantje (bap. Albany), daughter of Peter Peese Hogeboom (see note p.) and Jannetje Muller. He had one child:
(121). i. Maria, bap. Kaatsbaan 21 Apr 1736; sp. Johannes Scherrerhorn and Jannetje van Alen ().

Arriantje Hogeboom, widow of Lawrence van Alen, married Kingston 20 May 1748 Johannes Schut.

(121) Maria, Lawrence's only child, married Johan Jost Hergheimer (Berliner) (bap.), son of Berliner (see note) and

At Kaatsbaan 6 Oct 1759 Johan Jost Hergheimer and his wife Maritje van Alen were the sponsors of Henrik, son of Thomas van Steenbergen and Christina Labatie. Maria had the following children, all baptized at Stone Arabia:

- i. George, b. 26 Apr 1761, bap. ; sp. John Joost Hergheimer () and wife Catherine.
- ii. Ariana, b. 11 Je 1763; bap. ; sp. George Hergheimer () and Annatje ten Broeck.
- iii. Lawrence, b. 23 Jul 1767; bap. ; sp. Pieter Schuyler and Lisa Garbel.
- iv. Maria, b. 6 Apr 1769, bap. ; sp. Abraham Rosencrans and wife Maria.
- v. John Nicholas, b. 24 Jan 1771, bap. ; sp. John Nich. Hergheimer () and wife Maria.

Note.
